

Q3 Vocab List #2

dedicate

(v.) to devote to a sacred or special purpose; to inscribe a work of art to someone out of affection or respect

depose

(v.) to remove someone from office or high position; to testify or state under oath but out of court

dispense

(v.) to distribute or administer; to do without; to do away with something

dissect

(v.) to cut apart; to analyze closely

exertion

(n.) physical or mental effort

hamper

(n.) a large covered basket or container

(v.) to hold back or hinder

haven

(n.) a harbor or port; a place of safe shelter

humidity

(n.) moisture; dampness; the amount of moisture in the air

imperative

(adj.) absolutely necessary, urgent; commanding; describing a very that expresses a command

(n.) a command

impose

(v.) to place or set on with authority; to inflict by force; to pass off deceptively; (with on or upon) to take advantage of

inconsiderate

(adj.) lacking concern for the needs of others; thoughtless; selfish

intercept

(v.) to take or seize en route; to block

liable

(adj.) likely; subject or susceptible; legally responsible

memento

(n.) a souvenir; a keepsake; anything kept or given to remind one of the past

negligent

(adj.) guilty of neglect; failing to show proper care or caution

presume

(v.) to take for granted; to suppose to be true; to take upon oneself with authority

recuperate

(v.) to return to health and strength; to recover from financial losses

restrain

(v.) to hold back from action; to control; to limit or restrict

spacious

(adj.) containing much space; vast; roomy

tumult

(n.) a violent or noisy commotion of a crowd; a disorderly disturbance of mind or feeling